RULES OF PLAY

1. Although the play area is monitored by trained staff, children must be supervised by a parent or guardian at all times. Keep an eye on those cheeky monkeys!

2. All children using the play area must be under the age of 12 and below 4ft 9inches [1.45m] in height.

3. No slurping, sipping, chewing or chomping in the play area please, although food or drink purchased on-site may be consumed in the Wacky Warehouse seating area.

4. Children must remove their shoes and wear socks before entering the play area. Ready? Socks on? Let's go!

5. It is advisable for children to wear long sleeves and tops that can be tucked in. All tucked in? Let's begin!

6. If you're poorly, please save your play for another day, and get well soon!

7. At quieter times you're welcome to play as long as you like but if we're busy during peak times we will restrict play to 1 hour. Let's make this the wackiest hour ever!

8. Children must remove spectacles [unless shatterproof], jewellery and any other sharp objects, including badges, before entering the play area.

9. No glassware should be brought into the play or reception areas. We can provide plastic drinking glasses for you.

11. Please report any accident or injury to a member of our trained staff.

12. Adults are not permitted within the play equipment during general admission times. During Tot Club sessions adults may accompany their children, if required, in the play equipment.

10. Wacky Warehouse operates a non smoking policy for the comfort of everyone.

WHAT TO WEAR:

We recommend that Wacky kids wear long sleeve tops, leggings or trousers. It's also important that they're wearing socks, but if you don't have them, don't worry, we have some on sale. Once they look the part, let them get out there and have some fun!

SAFE & SOUND:

We ask for the postcodes, house numbers and surnames of all children to check that you've previously signed our Rules of Play as part of our health and safety commitment. If not, we'll ask you to sign a new one. Don't worry - we won't share this information with anyone else.
